THE LATEST HANDICAPPER.

The latest novelty in racing is the astronomical handicapper. I mingled with him a few days ago. He's intelligent and knows nothing of racing methods, in search of scientific curiosities he ran to horoscopes as applied to racing individuals. There was no financial angle to it all. He is a business man and member of a local knot of folks who, as the case may be, apply or misapply astronomical science to humanity—in an amateur sort of way. Their professional representative is the advertising seer. More progressive than others, my man conceived the idea of equine application. There's no question of his personal integrity. But there is of all the rest—from the ground up. All that he needed for raw material was the date of birth of a racing item to give one a map of its conformation, disposition and probable career. He got his key about Tully Coulter's $100 Sluggard—Constance colt and promptly furnished me a map of the colts future, which took this pictorial form and suggested Zoroaster and all the rest of planetism:

This all comes out of the colt being foaled May 4, 1894. He'd have done better had he known what was coming—the colt, of course. The key to the planetary chart declares that The Sluggard—Constance youngster has a good head, can be taught a great deal, has a weak center piece, good legs, and—outside the center piece—is generally athletic.

This isn't the report of stakeism. The stable report doesn't incline that high. Neither does the colt's price. Pat Dunne bought him and sold him—with a Whistle Jacket—Bombazine youngster throw in—for $200 to Coulter. We'll watch and see how the colt and the astronomical map fit. Coulter's in Kentucky. Therefore a personal report isn't available.

This astronomical angle is interesting though. It's novel, too. One always runs into the handicapper of general lines who mingles class, prices and general knowledge and paints his pictures with the brush of time. Now and again a man handicaps jockeys and lets the horses ebb and flow. Little Pete took this route. Others, without the Chinese chart, use it daily. Then there's the handicapper of owners and other unbalanced groups of the turf. Each uses a mental key which he seeks to fit into the winning lock. The only successful key maker, however, is the student who sees aright and rejects the many gawds of this and that school.

While the astrological agent drew up his table on The Sluggard colt, an effort was made to find the fundamentals for another planetary chart on Coulter's gift colt, by Whistle Jacket—Bombazine. His birthday date couldn't be placed. The colt is likely to turn out, as other gift colts have periodically come to hand—truly and well. Last Wednesday at Louisville he beat Mon Bijou, George F. Smith's sister by The Bard. The trial came out of an argument. 'Gene Leigh is training Mon Bijou and Coulter the gift colt. Each thought best of his own. A local critic says:

The argument ended in a wager, and two boys of equal weight were put up with instructions to break from the half pole and race a quarter. To the surprise of the trainer the filly was in trouble before an eighth had been covered, the chestnut romping away from her and winning well in hand in :24½. Mr. Coulter was gratified over the confirmation of his judgment, but even more so over the showing of his choice. He is a green colt and had never been sent a quarter at racing pace before. He was given to Mr. Coulter by Pat Dunne, as a yearling, and seems to have the making of racehorse in him.

TREOPIA IS A GOOD COLT.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 4.—The Jockey Club Stakes for 2-year-olds was nothing but an exercise gallop for Rodegap's Tremont colt Treopia. He is a grand looking youngster and good judges say the best they have seen this year. Coupled with Albert Vale he was a stout favorite and his owner had a good bet on him. Tabor got off well and the result was never in doubt.

The prettiest finish of the meeting came out of the first race, which McGuigan's colt Albion, won by a short head from Goose Liver. Perkins rode Albion and it was his strong finish that won the race. With riders reversed Goose Liver would have won. The day was pleasant, track fast and attendance fair.

SOME NEW ORLEANS MISCHIEF.

The New Orleans story about Gov. Matthews being intent on enforcing the Indiana law is a healthy story. That's the duty of the governor of a state. Gov. Matthews is also quoted, via New Orleans, as declaring projected racing at Lakeside, Forsyth and Sheffield to be illegal. That's different. Gov. Matthews and the Sellers law can hardly be on bad terms. Both are legal items of the commonwealth of Indiana. The geographical source of the news drift of racing politics and a local angle or so would indicate that a long range bureau of mischief is at work to injure the Indiana tracks. It naturally goes at the newspapers for its purpose.

The Lakeside officials took the proper action against the so-called news. They wired their agents to send them lists of stables intending to come to Chicago. So many horses have been refused quarters, and so many more want them, that New Orleans owners who are in doubt can well be overlooked.

The illegal plea against the Indiana tracks has not one trace of reason or common sense. Its mischief is obvious and its manipulators can be named when the time comes.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Eugene Leigh is a successful and busy turfman. Had he gone to newspaperdom or any other line of industry he would have been as successful and as busy. In a personal letter from South Louisville, the post office of Churchill Downs racing contingent, Mr. Leigh says: "I shipped to P. J. Dwyer to-day (Wednesday), Declare and the 2-year-old brother to Axiom. Declare looks well and will train. He wintered at LaBelle. Pat Dunne has shipped Cash Day and the 2-year-old by Longfellow—Una to LaBelle to be turned out.

"All of our horses are doing extra well. There is not a sick one out of forty-seven. California, Redskin, Fusileer, Farmer Leigh, Tom Smith and Mon Bijou of T. W. Coulter's string are in fine form. King William II, Zanane and Arrezzo, the property of Samuel Levy of New York, are as good as health and training can make them. Gew Gaw, by Forester—Knick Knack and LaDuchesse by Iroquois—Duchess, the property of the Hamilton Stable, attract more attention than any colts on the track. Gew Gaw's attention is on account of his fine looks and beautiful action, and that of LaDuchesse because she is a half sister to Clifford.

North Anna, the dam of George F. Smith, has a beautiful foal by Sir Dixon; Knick Knack a fine bay colt by Bramble; old Ballyhoo, a filly by Bramble; Boabdilla, a colt by Kingston. G. W. Johnson's book is full, Burlington's is nearly full, and Aerolithe is getting his share of patronage.

The Leigh-McDaniel's starting machine will be given a public trial to-morrow here. The appliance looks like the simplest and best yet offered.

Coulter is trying to eat himself to death while here. We dine first at Frank Jones' and then with Charles H. Hughes. They are the acknowledged epicures at Churchill Downs. Del monico is not in it with either.

WOODLANDS STUD

15 MILES FROM ST LOUIS ON THE WABASH
BARNEY SCHREIBER'S MODEL FARM.

THE CHOICEST OF AUSTRALIAN BLOOD.

FOUL SHOT BY MUSKET -SLANDER.

MUSKET is the sire of Carbine, Trenton, Nordenfeld, Currassier, Brigadier, Maxim, Martini-Henry, etc. Slander, was the winner of seventy-five races at all distances, carrying as high as 145 pounds, by Camden, out of Annie Laurie (a famous race mare and producer). Capable, the sire of the latter, was the grandsire of Yattendon. Foulshot himself was a great race horse. He won the Northern Derby in New Zealand in the fastest time it has ever been run in, and the same afternoon won at two miles from twenty-six starters. He has been a phenomenal success as a sire. Last year he had nineteen representatives on the turf, twelve of which were winners, and all the others inside the money. Foul Shot will come east in May and take his place at Woodlands, after serving a few of the most select California mares, including Janet N, the dam of Crescendo, Bellicoso and Dolce.
